

for hours and watch the glistening waters, and the sleepy old sailboats gliding by. Then I wonder why people can be happy cooped up in big houses, in big city streets."

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Altoona, Prussia.—Benno Koenig, German aviator, injured when he made bad landing yesterday, died today.

Kenora, Ont.—Fire destroyed Rat Portage saw mill and power plant with several 1,000 feet of lumber. $200,000 damages.

Havana.—Gen. Ivomet was captured by federals today. Was only remaining leader of rebels since death Estanez was killed.

Auburn, N. Y.—Charles Stephenson, Skanateles' newspaper man, and William Topp, killed and John Dean, Auburn, severely injured when auto going at high speed crashed into telegraph pole.

White Plains, N. Y.—Clarence Shearn, counsel for Harry K. Thaw, charged William T. Jerome with having persecuted his client.

Seattle, Wash.—Negro soldiers 25th infantry, "Brownsville regiment," being searched for member who attacked Mrs. F. Pratt, white woman.

Des Moines.—Progressive Republicans will control Republican state convention that meets here July 10 to adopt platform.

Havana.—Newspaper El Dia has editorially charged president with diverting $1,000,000 public funds to secret service.

Villisac, O.—Eyes of Blanche Spillinger, who, with her sister, Joseph Moore and his wife and children, were murdered June 9, have been sent to Chicago to see if they reflect image of murderer.

Berlin, Germany.—Empress of Germany is reported as being very ill despite denials issued from palace.

Atwater, Ill.—Mary Detrup, suffering from appendicitis, taken 10 miles on handcar to hospital, where she was operated on.

Philadelphia.—Liberty bell may break in two. Crack has extended six inches.

Tarrytown, N. Y.—John D. Rockefeller returned to Pocantico Hills and to escape corps of reporters who were on his trail, he went to river at midnight and hired ferryman to take him across.

San Francisco.—Mary Wilson, wife of C. P. Wilson, wealthy contractor, suicide. as. Had quarreled with husband.

New York.—W. E. D. Stokes, famed as target of shooting show girls, ran down and probably fatally injured Alma Benson, 15, with auto. Girl was struck as she shoved mother and 2 smaller children out of danger.

New York.—Seymour Porch, motorcyclist, will die as result of successful effort not to run down women and children crossing street.

Providence, R. I.—Headless body of woman, that has caused excitement, identified by Henry